

RTA Presents A Real-Life Sopranos Lecture Event

Featuring speaker Al DeMeo, the author of For the Sins Of My Father.

From The Godfather to GoodFellas to The Sopranos, and to Road to Perdition - The Hollywood gangster formula is simple; local boy goes bad, becomes a small time hood, works hard, rises to the top of a crime syndicate, then falls from glory as a result of his own greed. As Al DeMeo knows, the gangster's reality is not that simple.

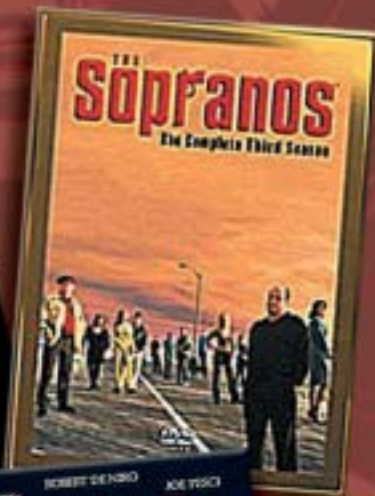

AL DEMEO

Author of For the Sins of My Father: A Mafia Killer, His Son and The Legacy of A Mob Life

AL DEMEO, grew up the son of a reputed Gambino Family hit man. Unaware of the extent of his father's involvement, Al experienced first hand the benefits granted and the devastation caused by a life of crime. In a powerful lecture special event, Al DeMeo strips the glitz and glory from the conventional gangster tale and tells a raw and painful story of a childhood wrought with nervousness, fear, and sadness which led to an early adulthood of paranoia, harassment, and wrongful accusations. More importantly, Al's story is the tale of someone who has lived this life rather than a tabloid account of someone-who-knows-someone-who-knows-someone, etc. Unlike any gangster tale heard thus far, Al presents an honest and genuine account of a cycle that leaves in it's wake innocent victims and shattered lives.
